Repeal.

24. The Orissa Prohibition of Alienation of Land Act, 1972 is hereby repealed.

Orissa
Act 16
of 1972.

V. V. GIRI,
President.

K. K. SUNDARAM,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Reasons for the enactment

The Orissa Land Reforms Act, 1960 inter alia provides for the imposition of ceiling on agricultural holdings and regulation of the rights of tenants and share-croppers in the State of Orissa. For a number of years the constitutional validity of the ceiling provisions of the Act was being challenged in the Supreme Court. The ceiling provisions of the Act were brought into force in January, 1972 after the decision of the Supreme Court was pronounced. No surplus land has yet been acquired. The Act, however, falls short of the national guidelines on ceiling on agricultural holdings based on the conclusions arrived at the Chief Ministers' Conference held in July, 1972. The tenancy provisions of the Act also need to be amended in the light of the policy-formulations set out in the Five-Year Plans. After giving careful consideration to the various aspects of land reform measures which are necessary in the interests of social justice and agricultural production it has been decided to amend the provisions of the Orissa Land Reforms Act, 1960 with a view to imposing ceiling on the aggregate area of land held by all the members of a family and modify the provisions relating to exemptions. It has also been considered necessary to reduce the level of ceiling and impose different levels of ceiling for different classes of land. Opportunity has also been taken to further safeguard the interests of tenants and share-croppers and persons belonging to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. The present measure is being enacted to achieve the above objects.

2. The Committee constituted under the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Orissa State Legislature (Delegation of Powers) Act, 1973 (20 of 1973), has been consulted before enactment of this measure as a President's Act.
